

The psalmist prayed,
"Direct me in the path. There I find delight."

Follow the maze.

Ages 3+

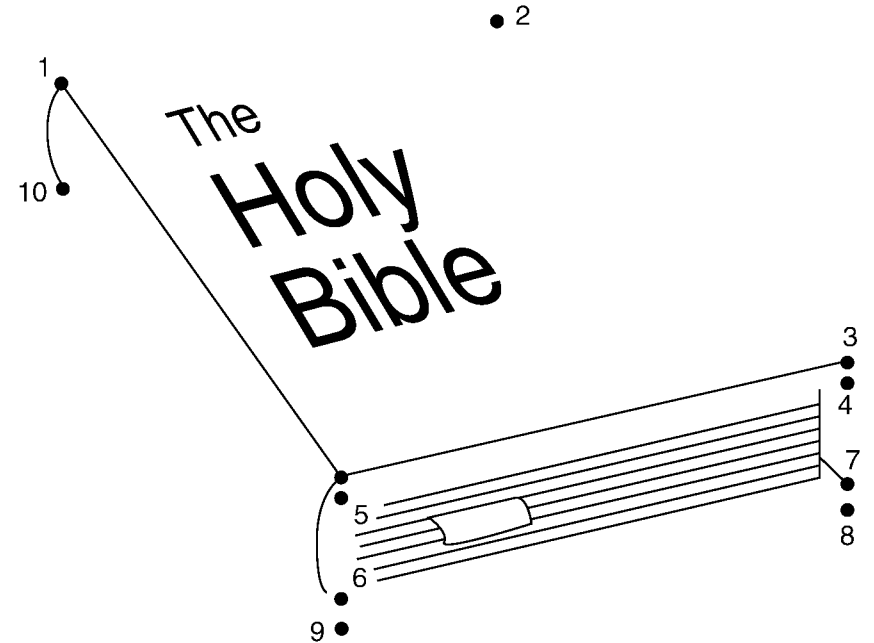

August 23, 2020 • Psalm 119:33-40

Teach Me, O Lord

The psalmist prayed, "Teach me to follow
Your laws." Where are God's laws found?

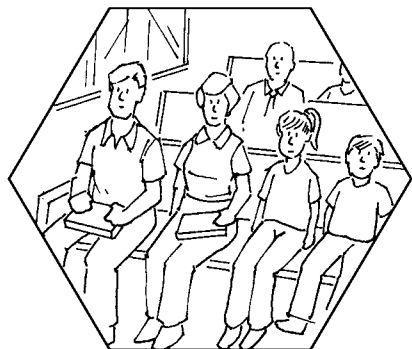

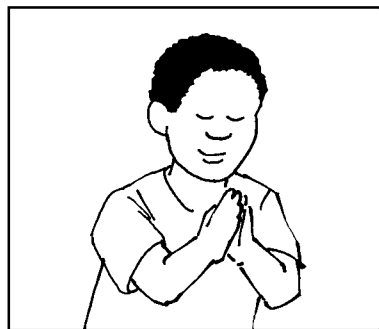

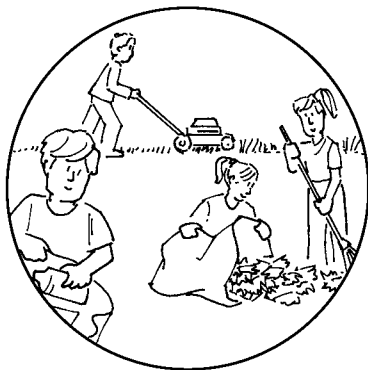

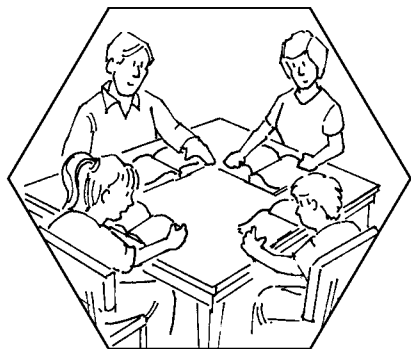

Connect the dots.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

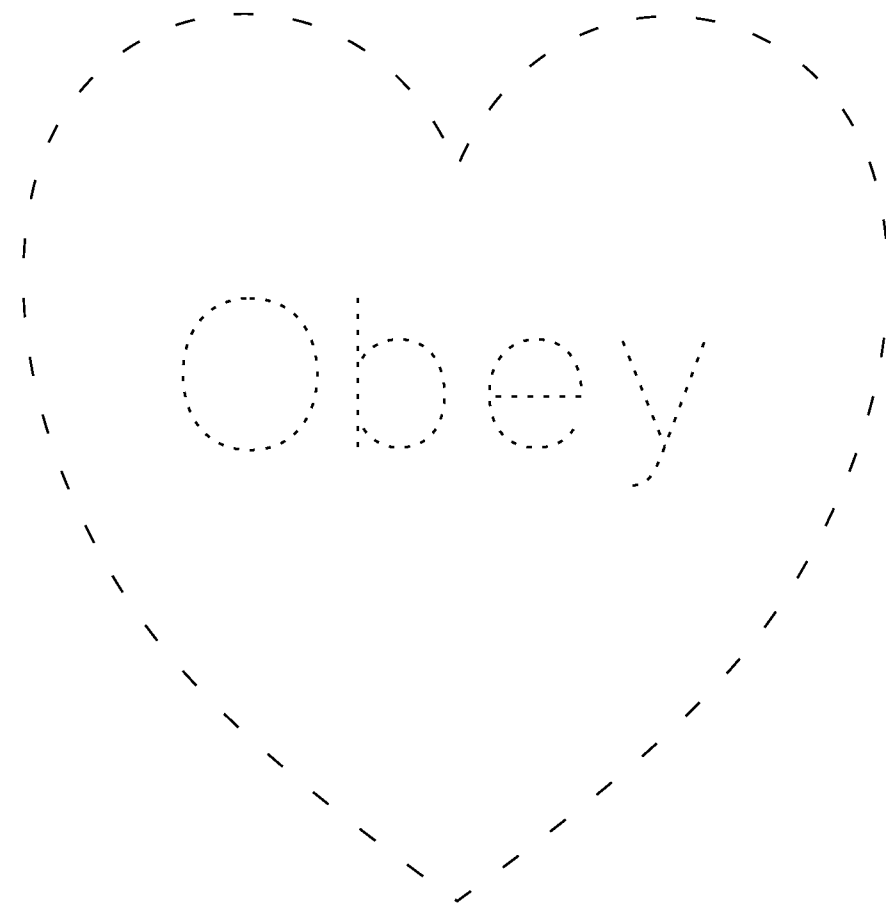

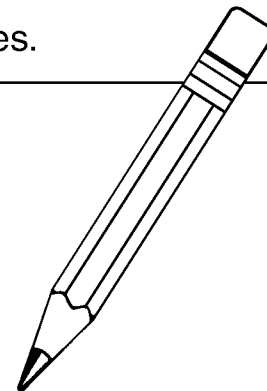

The psalmist also prayed, "Give me understanding, and I will keep Your law."

Match the shapes.

I will obey God's laws with all of my heart.

Trace the lines.

Everything requires upkeep –
our belongings, environment, bodies and spirits.

Ages 7+

August 23, 2020 • Psalm 119:9-16

Living by God's Word

The psalmist asks a question and supplies the answer.

Supply the missing letter in the descriptions of what happens to things that are not regularly maintained or tended. Put the letters in order in the blanks to find a good practice to remember.

- damp towels will M__LDEW paint will P__EL
- flowerbed will get __EEDS stones walls will __RUMBLE
- silver will TARN__SH flowers will WI__HER
- milk will SPOI__ cloth will FRA__
- roof will __EAK clocks will run D__WN
- boats will SI__K knives will get D__LL
- bread will M__LD metal will __UST
- furniture will collect DUS__ muscles will get __EAK
- pools will become STAG__ANT potatoes will R__T
- teeth will D__CAY flag will become TATTE__ED
- hair will become TAN__LED bright colors will FA__E
- lawn will have DANDE__IONS

“ _____

 _____ ”

Write the names of the objects. Use the first letters to make words that complete the question and its answer.

1

2

5

6

3

7

4

8

How can those who are young keep their way _____? By living according to God's _____.

